

Worminghall Village Hall

Safeguarding Policy

Introduction

Worminghall Village Hall is a community organisation with charitable status. It is managed by a Board of Trustees and run by a voluntary management committee, with the aid of additional volunteers.

Policy Purpose

This policy defines how Worminghall Village Hall operates to safeguard children, young people, and adults at risk of abuse or neglect, regardless of gender, ethnicity, disability, sexuality, religion, or faith.

The trustees have a duty of care and are committed to the protection and safety of everyone who enters their premises including children, young people and adults at risk involved as visitors and/or as participants in all activities and events. They also have a duty to safeguard and support fellow trustees, volunteers, and staff.

Definitions

Children and young people are defined as those persons aged under 18 years old. This policy will apply to all staff, contractors and volunteers and will be used to support their work.

Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children is defined as:

- protecting children from maltreatment
- preventing impairment of children's health and development
- ensuring that children grow up in circumstances consistent with the provision of safe and effective care
- taking action to enable all children to have the best outcomes.

Adult at risk of abuse or neglect for the purposes of this policy, adult at risk refers to someone over 18 years old who, according to Section 42 of the Care Act 2014:

- has care and support needs
- is experiencing, or is at risk of, abuse or neglect
- as a result of their care and support needs is unable to protect himself or herself against the abuse or neglect or the risk of it.

If someone has care and support needs but is not currently receiving care or support from a health or care service, they may still be an adult at risk.

Persons affected

- All trustees, volunteers, and staff.
- All those attending any activity or service that is being delivered from the village hall charity property.
- All visitors and contractors.

Policy principles

There can be no excuses for not taking all reasonable action to protect children and adults at risk from abuse or neglect. All citizens of the United Kingdom have their rights enshrined in the Human Rights Act 1998. People who are eligible to receive health and community care services may be additionally vulnerable to the violation of these rights by reason of disability, impairment, age, or illness.

Worminghall Village Hall charity has a zero-tolerance approach to abuse.

Worminghall Village Hall charity recognises that under the Care Act 2014, it has a duty for the care and protection of adults who are at risk of abuse. It also recognises its responsibilities for the safety and care of children under the Children Act 1989 and 2004.

Worminghall Village Hall charity is committed to promoting wellbeing, harm prevention and to responding effectively if concerns are raised.

Worminghall Village Hall charity is aware of the work of their local safeguarding Board/Partnership and other support organisations on the development and implementation of procedures for the protection of children and adults at risk. The policy is about stopping abuse where it is happening and preventing abuse where there is a risk that it may occur.

Worminghall Village Hall Trustees is committed to the following principles:

- The welfare of the child, young person or adult at risk is paramount.
- All children, young people and adults at risk have the right to protection from abuse.
- Safeguarding is everyone's responsibility: for services to be effective each professional and organisation should play their full part; and
- All suspicions and allegations of abuse must be properly reported to the relevant internal and external authorities and dealt with swiftly and appropriately.

Procedures

1. All Trustees will sign the Declaration of Acceptance of Office which includes a declaration that they have no convictions in relation to abuse.
2. All members of the committee will familiarise themselves with safeguarding responsibilities, undertake training where appropriate on safeguarding issues including whistleblowing where it is available and offered by their local safeguarding board/partnership or other local support organisation and ensure that they understand the principles set out in this policy above.
3. All volunteers will familiarise themselves with safeguarding responsibilities.
4. All members of the committee will work together to promote a culture that enables issues about safeguarding and promoting welfare to be addressed.
5. All members of the committee, helpers or other volunteers will not have unsupervised access to children or adults at risk unless appropriately vetted.

8. All suspicions or allegations of abuse against a child or adult at risk will be taken seriously and dealt with speedily and appropriately. The appointed person will know who to contact and where to go for support and advice in relation to an allegation, a concern about the quality of care or practice or a complaint. An allegation may relate to a person who works with children or adults at risk who has:
 - Behaved in a way that has harmed a child or adult at risk or may have harmed a child or adult at risk.
 - Possibly committed a criminal offence against, or related to, a child or adult at risk; or
 - Behaved towards a child (or children) or adult at risk in a way that indicates they may pose a risk of harm to children or adults at risk.
9. The trustees will ensure that all hirers of the hall have signed a hiring agreement. For activities involving children and vulnerable adults, except for private parties arranged for invited friends and family, hirers must provide the Secretary of the Trustees with copies of the following documents before the first booking: risk assessments, safe recruitment procedures, DBS checks, insurance, data protection policy, safeguarding policy, and first aid considerations.
10. The trustees will ensure that all hirers of the hall have signed a hiring agreement. This will require all hirers who wish to use the hall for activities which include children and adults at risk, other than for hire for private parties arranged for invited friends and family, to either produce a copy of their risk assessments, and evidence that they have carried out relevant checks through the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) when requested to do so or confirm that they have understood and will adhere to the hall's principles and procedures with regard to safeguarding before the first booking commences.
11. Contractors engaged to carry out work at the premises must not be allowed unsupervised access to children or vulnerable adults. Appropriate supervision will be arranged if necessary.
12. An annual review will take place following the AGM to allow for any required update of policies and or procedures.
